A. If the court Order you want to change is from Maricopa County, Arizona:

- Use your copy of the Order, or get a copy of the Order from Court Records. You will need a copy of the Order to fill out the paperwork.
- If the court Order you want to change is from another county in Arizona:
 - Get a certified copy of the Order you want to change from the other county, AND
 - Bring the certified copy with you when you come to the Clerk of the Court to file your court papers, AND
 - Give the certified copy of the Order to the Clerk before filing any additional paperwork, AND
 - The Clerk will file the Order and assign a case number to your new case.
- If the court order you want to change is from a state other than Arizona:
 - Talk to a lawyer who can tell you what requirements are necessary for you to file for modification in Arizona.

STEP 2 Important definitions to help you in your decision to change custody.

- “Sole Custody” means the condition under which one person has legal custody.
- “Parenting time” means the condition under which a parent has the right to have a child physically placed with the parent and the right and responsibility to make, during that placement, routine daily decisions regarding the child’s care consistent with the major decisions made by the person having legal custody.
- “Joint Custody” means joint legal custody or joint physical custody, or both.
- “Joint Legal Custody” means the condition under which both parents share legal custody and neither parent’s rights are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parents in the final judgment or order.
- “Joint Physical Custody” means the condition under which the physical residence of the child is shared by the parents in a manner that assures that the child has substantially equal time and contact with both parents.

STEP 3 Complete the forms in this packet if both parties agree to ask the court to modify or change an existing court Order for child custody, parenting time and child support.

- Have in front of you a copy of the current “Parenting Plan” (if you have one), “Child Custody Order,” the “Child Support Order,” and any “Order of Assignment” You will need to look at these documents to complete all the paperwork now.
- IMPORTANT: If you want to modify custody, you must also consider whether it will be necessary to modify child support and/or parenting time. You will need all the documents that are required to modify the child support order and the parenting time order.

- Use the “Parent-Child Access Guidelines” to help you make your new “Custody and Parenting time Parenting Plan.”
- Use the “Child Support Guidelines” and the “Parent’s Worksheet” to help you understand whether, in light of the proposed new custody arrangement, the child support payments need to be changed. If you are changing custody and therefore changing child support, you might need to stop a current assignment order, and have a new “Order of Assignment” issued, depending on which parent will now pay support. These forms are included in the forms packet.
- Remember that the court must do what is in the best interests of the children. Even if both parties agree to child custody, parenting time and support, the judge will look over all the papers and decide what Order to make.
